

- Proposed article subjects must be approved by get lost before submission
- Article must be no more than 1500 words
- Each article must be written with the goal of inspiring and entertaining readers. We prefer stories that focus on the experiential side of travel rather than those driven by service information and stuff we can find in a guidebook
- Articles can be photo essays
- get lost reserve the right to publish the article in separate parts
- Submissions that contain errors, be it spelling, grammar, or factually incorrect, will not be considered
- Article must not have been published elsewhere
- Articles must fit in with the get lost TONE AND STYLE, so please make sure you ARE VERY FAMILIAR with the magazine
- Exclusivity period - 4 weeks after the article has been uploaded on to the blog you are able to publish it elsewhere
- Writer must own copyright for any accompanying photographs
- Article will be published in the name of the author
- get lost reserve the right to edit any article submitted